JOB EXPERIENCES

November 2022 - January 2023

February 2023 - April 2023

September 2023 - October 2023

January 2024 - April 2024

September 2025 - Early November 2025

- MANGO, VivoCity

- MANGO VivoCity is an apparel retail store which caters to users who are interested in mostly formal fashion wear. Daily clothing such as T-shirts, jeans, dresses also can be found. Winter wear such as boots and winter jackets are also available.
- I worked at MANGO for 2 months while waiting for my polytechnic foundation programme (PFP) admission to gain new work experience.
- I got to learn more about how adulthood works and had a chance to work with experienced part-timers, learning much more from them.
- I also managed to gain experience in cashiering during my 2 months in the job.

September 2024 - August 2025

- Beans and Cream (Ice Cream and Waffle Store)

- My role is to ensure that customers leave the store with satisfaction and ensure that the store is being handled well.
- Refilling the ice cream flavours and the making of the waffle batter and the refilling of jugs were also the main parts of my job scope.
- I feel that great customer service is being valued in jobs like this because you must ensure that customers do not feel like they are being mistreated, but they must feel like the most valued customer while they are being served.

April 2026 – June 2026 (Ongoing)

- Gardens by the Bay Attractions Operations (AO)

- I will be the first person that the visitors will come to for enquiries, directions or if they need any sort of help.
- I help to run operations throughout the gardens and make sure that everything goes smoothly and according to what we were tasked to fulfil.
- Carrying out our tasks properly will be the most important thing throughout the whole shift as we do not want any hiccups or accidents to happen.
- Built up my communication and customer service skills.
